First and foremost welcome to the Challenge Publications Staffs; were personally chosen by me to represent and chronicle this year in Challenge ECHS history! For those of you who have been on my staffs in the past, there will be some similarities and some glaring differences. I'm very excited to have each of you in my class; below are some details you need to know:

- ✓ There are no set jobs beyond the Editorial Staff. You work in groups and you figure out how to get the job done on time and done to the best of your abilities. Each group will receive access to a camera, recorders and any other equipment they will need. Your assessment will be based upon deadline work so collaboration is imperative.
- ✓ Newspaper and Yearbook are two separate entities and will be treated as such.
- ✓ Stay ahead of the deadlines; I will not accept excuses for not having spreads ready for publication by either of the staffs.
- ✓ Each member of the staff will be expected to cover events outside of school (e.g. soccer games, debate tournaments, theatre productions) and you will be notified in advance of the assignment. If you cannot cover the event it is your responsibility to find a replacement, if one is not found you will be held accountable for missing the event.
- ✓ You are personally responsible for any equipment you check out.
- ✓ Before you come to me with a problem you must go through the Editors.
- ✓ The goal for this year: publish monthly newspapers and send off the Yearbook by Spring Break.
- ✓ Everyone is now on the Marketing Team – there are sales expectations for each group which are part of the grade.
- ✓ If we miss an activity I want to know why.
- ✓ We will only cover material that is interesting; if it is not, find an interesting angle.
