

Challenge Early College needs additional funding to help pay for college field trips, social services, transportation, and college textbooks. We are not given additional funds to support the needs of our students in our special program. CECHS spends $20,000-$40,000 per semester on college textbooks. These college text books are only used for 1-3 years and are then updated with new texts, so we never can build a complete inventory. The average cost of college textbooks for our upper classmen is $250-$500.

To make your donation to support our students in their pursuit of advanced education, mail your check or bring it over to the front office. We would also appreciate if you filled out the following form in order to help us keep track of donations. Our address is as follows:
